OLD NEWSPAPERS, suitable for wrapping paper, in packages of fifty, for sale at this office.

We should not hesitate to recommend to any friend of ours, Parsons' Purgative Pills; they are scientifically prepared, and are adapted to all the purposes of a good purgative medicine.

Decidedly the best remedy that has ever been discovered for the rheumatism, swoons, or stiff joints, flesh wounds, sprains, bruises, cuts, and burns, is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We use it, and always recommend it to our friends.

NOT DEAD.—We published an account some days ago, of Mr. Delaney, a former resident of this place, as having killed several members of his family, and after accomplishing this crime, of taking his own life, but it seems to have been a false rumor, as we were shown a letter this morning, from a Wilmingtonian, now residing in the city of Baltimore, who says that Mr. Delaney and his family are living in that city, and furthermore, that he met him on the streets a day or two ago. We are glad to learn that the rumor of this great crime proves to be all a hoax.

ROBBERY.—Mr. John Bowman's shoe shop, on Second between Market and Princess streets, was entered some time after 12 o'clock Saturday night last, and robbed of three pairs of boots, and some other articles. The thief effected an entrance through the back window, by pulling off one of the boards of the shutter, and pushing in the sash. It is thought that he must have been frightened off, as there were lots of boots and shoes in the shop at the time, which he did not take. No clue as to the perpetrator.

For the Post, Brunswick County—Northwest Township.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of this Township was held at Brinkley's on Saturday, April 26th. On motion, Sam. Allen, Jr. was called to the chair, and A. J. Swinson was appointed secretary. On motion, a committee of six were appointed by the chair to prepare resolutions and select delegates to the county convention of Brunswick, to be held at Smithville on the third Monday of May next. The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our first choice for Judgeship be the present incumbent, D. L. Russell; for Solicitor, the present incumbent, Ed. Cantwell, and for Congress, Neil McKay, of Harnett county.

Resolved, That the following persons be appointed delegates and alternates to the county convention to be held in Smithville:—Delegates—A. J. Swinson, G. N. Hill, Sol. Webb, John Harper, Jr., Samuel Moore, Archer Shaw. Alternates—George Webb, Patrick Brown, Wesley Webb, Nathaniel Lane, J. Hall, Henderson Ferry.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Post for publication.

SAMUEL ALLEN, Chairman.
A. J. SWINSON, Secretary.

The pavement mania is the order of the day.

THE REV. J. K. PARKINSON preached at the Market House yesterday (Sunday) afternoon, to quite a goodly number of persons.

SIX persons, four ladies and two gentlemen, were confirmed at St. John's church last night, by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of North Carolina.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—We are under many obligations to Col. T. M. Holt, President of the State Agricultural Society, for an invitation to a dinner to be given to the members of the Press Association on the occasion of the visit of the Haw River in May; also to Messrs. Holt & Moore for an invitation to visit the Granite Mills, in Alamance county, of which they are proprietors.

Here is the latest discovery of meanness, chronicled by the Asheville Expositor: "A man not a hundred miles off, owed the Expositor two dollars. The agent of the paper staid all night with him, and he made the agent pay the cash for his bill of lodging, saying that he would pay for the paper soon. His name went off the books in haste. He ought to be 'shook' by Bald Mountain."

ELECTION.—At an election held today, the following were elected officers of the Willard Fire Engine Company, (Eagle Island,) viz:

Foreman—W. O. Skipper.

First Assistant Foreman—W. D. Small.

Secretary and Treasurer—R. McLeod.

Pipeman—E. F. Sesson and James Lyons.

YESTERDAY.—Yesterday (Sunday) was a delightful day, and large congregations were present at all of our churches, but more particularly was this the case at Front Street M. E. Church, which pulpit was occupied both morning and night, by that eloquent preacher, Rev. W. H. Milburn, who delivered most eloquent sermons, which were listened to by old and young alike, with the profoundest attention.

OFF.—The schr. Nellie Grant, which went ashore on Friday last, on Zeke's Island, succeeded in getting off on yesterday, and arrived in port this morning. Not much damage, if any was sustained. This schooner seems to have been unfortunate. On her way to this port she encountered a gale off Hatteras some weeks ago, and was compelled to be towed to Providence for repairs, and now on her second voyage to this port, she ran ashore, but fortunately, as is stated above, she received very little if any damage.

ALMOST A FIRE.—This morning, about 9 o'clock, while some workmen were engaged in drying a lot of hickory near the boiler at the foundry of Messrs. Hart & Bailey, the entire pile caught fire, but by the promptness of the workmen, with the addition of the steam pump in the yard, it was extinguished before the alarm became general. One of the workmen had his hand badly burned while engaged in extinguishing the fire. Not much damage was sustained.

PARADE.—Cape Fear and Orion Lodges, I. O. O. F., paraded through the principal streets, headed by an excellent band of music, this afternoon.

They will be dismissed at the Lodge Room, when they will again assemble, with their wives and sweethearts, at 7 o'clock, and after listening to the addresses to be made, which will not occupy longer than two hours, those feeling so disposed can adjourn to the Temperance Hall below, and engage in the pleasures of the dance.

COLLECTING AGENCY.—We call attention to the card of Messrs. J. J. Cassidy and G. O. VanAmringe in which they announce that they are prepared to undertake the collection of all sorts of claims for debt, ejectment, rents, &c., both in this city and in the country, by the ordinary means of collection as well as by process of law. Mr. Cassidy is a well known and efficient Magistrate, and Mr. VanAmringe has a large and valuable experience in mercantile business, and we feel safe in making the assertion that those in need of their services could not do better than by entrusting their business to them.

Charlotte will have the circus, and yet is not entirely happy.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

The following cases were disposed of this morning before this tribunal:

Wm. Bruce and Chas. Falkley, two sailors, for fighting in a saloon on North Water street. Falkley was ordered to pay a fine of $30 and costs, or thirty days on the streets. In the case of Bruce the Mayor reserved his decision until to-morrow morning.

Charles Holland, sailor, for disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay a fine of $5 and costs, or ten days on the streets. Bob Martin, for disorderly conduct, case continued.

George E. Bordon, for insulting a policeman while in the discharge of his duties, was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and costs, or forty days on the streets.

Sandy Campbell, for disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay a fine of $20 and costs, or thirty days on the streets.

Henry Williams, for stealing chickens, some weeks ago, from Mr. Gerken, and whose arrest has just been effected, was brought up, but the Mayor reserved his decision until to-morrow morning.

All of the above arrests were made by the day policemen, not one being arrested by any of the night force.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—From a private letter to P. G. C., W. H. Gerken, of this city, we learn that the following are the officers elect of the Supreme Lodge of the world K. of P.:

S. C., P. G. C., S. S. Davis of New Hampshire.

S. V. C., P. G. C., D. B. Woodruff of Georgia.

S. R. and C. S., P. G. C., Jos. Dowdall of Ohio.

S. G., P. G. C., Hugh Lathan of Virginia.

S. I. S., P. G. C., C. H. Hodson of West Virginia.

S. O. S., P. G. C., W. H. Mogston of Tennessee.

THE MAY ALDINE is as fresh and beautiful as the month it represents; filled to the brim with choice flowers of art and literature. The engravings, which in this superb monthly seem to have reached the highest point of perfection, are beautiful beyond anything heretofore seen in an illustrated magazine. John S. Davis opens the number with a full-page picture, "The Dying Hound," which is one of his best efforts, a strong work, showing that it is study from real life. J. D. Woodward contributes three large and spiritedly drawn pictures of scenes in Florida, one of the most beautiful and picturesque States in the Union. The first picture of the series is a deliciously cool view of the famous Silver Spring, which boils up from the earth; the second picture is a handsome full-page illustration of the mouth of the St. John's River, showing the ruins of the old light-house, a grove of palm trees, etc.; the third picture is a wild and dreamy view of a Florida hammock, one of those strange emerald islands in the midst of a desert of sands. Two other handsome and interesting pictures are "A Retriever," after Deiker, and "The Bashful Lover," by J. M. Burfield. "Up Springs the Lark," is the title of a charming little view, exceedingly appropriate for springtime. John Hews has a full-page picture, striking for its boldness, called the "Hemlocks of Otsego." "The New Capital at Hartford, Conn., is a finely executed drawing of the large and ornate building now in process of erection at Hartford. The last illustration in this number is an excellent portrait of Max Strakosch, the impresario. The literary contents of the May Aldine are of greater variety and excellence than usual, and are of the highest order of merit. Subscription price, $5, including chromos "The East" and "The West." James Sutton & Co., publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York City.

Correspondence solicited from our friends in all parts of the State, on topics of general interest. Political news and reports of crops are especially desirable.

A Democratic Nightmare.

The Democrats are dreadfully afraid of bolters. They have begun in time to check any member of their party who feels disposed to air his merits before the people. In the resolutions of their State Executive Committee they "earnestly recommend" that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant "who shall oppose the regular nominees of" their Conventions.

So the gentlemen who are not fortunate enough to secure the support of the rings which infest the Court-house of almost every Democratic county in the State, will at once see that their chances are nothing, and may at once proceed to take the back seats which have been kindly placed for their service.

The Memphis Appeal, a paper that from its location ought to have a good insight into Arkansas affairs, is strongly opposed to Brooks. It says: "Baxter may not have been fairly elected Governor, but he fairly won a title to the office by his wise and just execution of the laws. Brooks is a madman; a crazed zealot; a raging revivalist in politics and in the pulpit. He is a very devil when unchurched, and he fell further when he fell from grace into the pit of politics than Belial when kicked out of heaven into kingdom come."

The above article is going the rounds of the Democratic press, and it shows the disposition of that party. Here is almost an admission that Baxter was not elected Governor, but because Brooks is found to be a very devil, the former who was not elected, ought to have the office. Whether the Democrats found that Brooks is a very devil since they supported him for Governor, we do not know, but it would be according to the eternal fitness of things that they should have known it when they were voting for him. This knowledge would have commanded him to their choice wonderfully.

A Horrible Mania.

About two years ago the people of South Boston were horrified by a series of outrages from whipping to murder committed upon small boys of their community. The little victims would be tied and whipped or stabbed by a boy about twelve years old, whose only physical peculiarity was a white eye. The police investigated the subject, and soon found that all these outrages were committed by a boy named Jesse Pomeroy. He was tried and sent for two years to a reformatory school.

On last Wednesday the dead body of a little boy was found in the Dorchester District, who had been killed under circumstances of unusual cruelty. Young Pomeroy, who had been discharged from the school, and had been selling papers, was immediately suspected, and upon being searched and interrogated confessed his guilt. He has undoubtedly a diseased craving for blood.

Pomeroy is a boy of remarkable strength, his white eye being the only defect in a countenance otherwise bright and intelligent. He shows no signs of insanity except when talking about the devilish outrages which he has committed, and then there is every token of some terrible mania which caused the deeds.

As it has been said by Democrats, that Col. Pool is a man of learning, while Mr. Purnell is not, it is probably well enough to say that Mr. Purnell graduated with the first honors at Trinity College in June, 1869, and delivered the salutatory address on that occasion, there being no valedictory.

He received the degree of Bachelor of Arts and is now entitled to that of Master of Arts.

Do those who charge that Mr. Purcell is not a man of learning mean to reflect on the faculty at Trinity? Or do they mean to say that the law is not one of the learned professions? — Era.

"Nothing," said an impatient husband, "reminds me so much of Balaam and his ass as two women stopping in church and obstructing the way to indulge in their everlasting talk." "But you forget, my dear," returned the wife, weekly, "that it was the angel who stopped the way, and Balaam and his ass who complained of it."

The Canvass.

The time is approaching for nominations of candidates to fill the various offices that elections will be held to fill in August.

In this Judicial District both parties will doubtless concentrate, and re-elect that upright man and Judge Hon. R. P. Buxton.

In the Congressional District both sides will endeavor to put their best men. The Republican party is harmonious; and will present to the voters of the district one of its ablest, purest and most patriotic citizens. That candidate will be elected, whether the democracy are whipped into the traces by ambitious aspirants and throw Waddell over, or whether they nominate Waddell. Back pay or no back pay this Congressional District is tired of being represented in Congress by a Democrat. "A free river and a fair man" is what our people want; as their votes will show in August. Let the Republican party commence its work of organization now—the sooner the better—Statesman.

BEAUFORT, N. C., April 21, '74.

At a Republican meeting held on the 21st inst., at this place, M. E. Phelps was appointed Chairman and Silas Blount Secretary. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That being entirely dependent upon another district for Republican Representatives in the National Legislature, we avail ourselves of the opportunity thus offered to make acknowledgments of the obligations that we, as Republicans are under to, and to express our high admiration and esteem for the patriot and statesman, Hon. R. C. Thomas, whom our county has given to the State.

Resolved, That in consideration of the wise and patriotic course pursued by Judge Thomas since he has been a member of Congress, he is entitled to the encouragement and support of all true men in the State, and especially of the Republicans in the district which he now so ably represents, and we feel and believe that it is not only their duty, but that it will be the pleasure of the Republicans of the Second District to return him to Congress by an overwhelming majority. Considering his distinguished abilities and the eminent services he has rendered as a republican advocate, we earnestly beseech our republican friends in his district to honor themselves by a unanimous vote, as their standard bearer in their next convention.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the officers of the meeting, and a request that the proceedings be published in the New Bern Times and Wilmington Post, after which the meeting adjourned.

M. O. PHELPS, Chairman.

SILAS A. BLOUNT, Secretary.

Certain States, Tennessee being one of them, desirous of adding to their population, are earnestly inviting foreign emigration. But the emigrants sometimes find that they have fallen among thieves. Thus, a short time ago, three men with their faces blacked, went to the house of a newly-arrived German in Lawrence county, Tenn., and called him out to the fence, when one of them put a pistol to his head and the other two proceeded to the house to rob it, having been rumored that the German had a large amount of gold in the house. They searched the house without finding anything except a watch, which they took, with some carpenter's tools. Well might the confiding Teuton have exclaimed, "Mein Gott, vot a beeps!"

WAIFS.

When a Cincinnati man goes up to a bar to drink, and is asked what he will have, he says: "Give me some headache and a family fight," and the bartender knows just which bottle to hand down.

"Don't prevaricate, sir," thundered a Columbian Judge to a witness from the mine. "Can't help it, Judge," answered the miner. "Ever since I got a kick from a mule that knocked my teeth out I prevaricate a good deal."

A beautiful lady was kissing and caressing her beloved little lapdog. "Ah, Maria!" exclaimed her foppish admirer, "why not grant me the favor you are wasting on Fido?" "I don't kiss every puppy," replied the pouting fair one.

On Wea prarie, near Lafayette, Ind., a little hut four feet high, with a forty foot lightning rod on it. The proprietor, being asked if he was afraid of the lightning, replied: "Not a bit; but it keeps those cursed lightning rods fellows from striking."

An inebriated individual precipitated himself down the depot stairs, and, on striking the landing, reproachfully apostrophised himself with: "If you'd been wanting to come down stairs, why didn't you say so, you wooden-headed old fool, an' I'd a come with you, an' showed you the way."

In Marysville, Cal., the other day, a Newfoundland dog walked into a market, dropped a 10-cent piece out of his mouth and walked off with a whole salmon. The butcher says some folks may call that dog intelligent, but he thinks that a dog that can't distinguish between a 10-cent slice and a $5 fish hasn't got even common sense.

Paul had made several unsuccessful attempts to procure tickets for a recent popular entertainment at the Boston Museum. Coming home disappointed one evening, he announced to his wife that there were no seats for "Little Emily" that night, and he didn't believe there would be for a week, at least. Mamei's quick sympathies were enlisted at once. "Why not, papa?" she inquired, compassionately. "Won't her farver let her sit down?"

"Nothing," said an impatient husband, "reminds me so much of Balaam and his ass as two women stopping in church and obstructing the way to indulge in their everlasting talk." "But you forget, my dear," returned the wife, weekly, "that it was the angel who stopped the way, and Balaam and his ass who complained of it."

The Post.

Mrs. Sarah N. Dick.

This lady, one of the most accomplished of the land, has published an article over her own proper signature in the last number of the Robesonian, touching incidentally two topics, which I desire briefly to review.

She says that she and a majority of the ladies of the State are in hearty sympathy with the principles of the Conservative party. I would seriously ask her why? is it for the reason that woman has ever been treated by that party as inferior and subordinate? Does she remember that prior to the Constitution of 1868, that the husband upon his marriage acquired the absolute title to her personal, and the rents and profits of her real estate, together with the right to chastise her not unlike that of his slave? I would call her attention to the provisions of article 10, section 6 of our present Constitution, adopted and ratified against the protest and persistent opposition of the party with which Mrs. Dick and her sisters sympathize, and also to a recent decision of our Supreme Court, declaring the corporal punishment of the wife by the husband illegal and a crime.

The present Constitution has materially modified the relations heretofore existing between the husband and wife. It protects and secures her property from a reckless and dissipated husband, and her person from violence at the hands of a brutal one, and when a good, true, and kind husband is overtaken by misfortune, his widow and minor children are assigned a home whose roof is sacred from "turret to foundation stone," and fully secured even from a Shylock's hand. Now do Mrs. Dick and her sisters, the good ladies of North Carolina approve of these laws, with many others made for the first time in this State for their benefit, or are they willing to have them repealed and return again to the old order of things? Many of the rights and privileges now accorded to woman were unknown to the earlier nations, even the right of dower was denied by the laws of the Greeks and Romans, and originated with more recent races, who had a higher regard for her.—Sweyn, one of the Kings of Denmark, established this right out of gratitude to the ladies of his realm, who sold their jewels to ransom him from captivity. If this proud man was moved by feelings of gratitude for a personal favor, might we not reasonably expect similar ones in the breast of gentle woman towards the benefactors of her race?

Mrs. Dick says that by reason of her attachment to the Conservative party, relatives and connections dear to her heart, on both sides of her family, were neglected, and the interchange of affectionate courtesies suspended. I would inquire what branch of the party do they belong to, or do the tenets of the different fragments of that conglomeration party require a refined Christian lady of North Carolina to neglect and suspend affectionate courtesies with her kindred and connections solely for opinion's sake? This lady has one brother-in-law, Judge R. P. Dick, late of the Supreme Court, and now of the Federal Court, a christian gentleman with few equals and no superiors in or out of the State. Now, if the dicta of that party require this, who can approve it?

Then, Mr. Editor, invite Mrs. Dick and her good sisters of the State to join with Governor Kemper of Virginia, and with her eloquent pen assist to dispel the clouds of ignorance and prejudice that now darken our sky, and let them encourage the execution of the many benevolent provisions of our improved constitution, and the day will soon come when the intelligent, refined and good ladies of the State will not be required and compelled to suspend the friendly relations of her kindred and friends by reason of their political opinions.

CAPE FEAR.

April 27th, 1874.

Georgia was triumphant in a chicken fight with South Carolina at Macon last week. Seventeen birds were matched out to 21 shown. South Carolina won the first fight Wednesday evening. Thursday evening closed with Georgia one ahead; Georgia, 5; South Carolina, 4. On Friday South Carolina won the first three fights, and at the dinner the score stood South Carolina 8 to Georgia 6. Then two of South Carolina's champions went to hash, leaving the score even. The last fight was desperate, and ended in the death of the Palmetto bird.

On Wea prarie, near Lafayette, Ind., a little hut four feet high, with a forty foot lightning rod on it. The proprietor, being asked if he was afraid of the lightning, replied: "Not a bit; but it keeps those cursed lightning rods fellows from striking."

An inebriated individual precipitated himself down the depot stairs, and, on striking the landing, reproachfully apostrophised himself with: "If you'd been wanting to come down stairs, why didn't you say so, you wooden-headed old fool, an' I'd a come with you, an' showed you the way."

Benjamin Wayland Salisbury, a letter carrier of Providence, is probably the most stupid thief on the way to State prison. He had been a carrier only about three weeks, and to gain a reputation for smartness and promptitude in making his rounds, hid away hundreds of letters instead of delivering them. He does not appear to have opened any letters, but put them away solely with a view of getting a name for efficiency.

Ladies who carefully economized during the winter by feeding their families on free soup are now reaping their reward in the way of spring style bonnets and other delicacies of the season.—N.Y. World.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the LATEST NEWS, up to the time of going to press.

TELEGRAPHIC, BY MAIL, COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is

UNSWEARINGLY REPUBLICAN.
